BAILEY SCORES FIRST VICTORY ON PATH TO REPUBLICATION NOMINATION

With 60.5% of the vote, Bailey snags top spot on the ballot at Colorado's 2nd CD Assembly

(May 21, 2010) LOVELAND, Colo.— Today, at the Republican Assembly for Colorado Congressional District Two, Stephen Bailey received a strong endorsement from the Assembly delegates, capturing the top spot on the primary ballot with 60.5% of the vote.

Of the results, Bailey said, "I am honored and humbled by today's Assembly victory; I'm ready to propel my campaign forward and secure the Republican nomination. The outpouring of support we received today can only help us in our endeavor."

Bailey is a U.S. Air Force veteran and businessman running to return America to its Constitutional principles. Among the issues he backs are: reining in government spending, ending government intrusion into health care and re-establishing government accountability. Colorado State Senator Shawn Mitchell, who endorsed Bailey stated, "I think the standard-bearer who can take the message of government accountability and fiscal responsibility from Colorado to Washington, D.C. is Steve Bailey."

Another prominent delegate who supported Bailey was former Colorado State Senator from Boulder County Sandy Hume, who said, "Stephen is the man who can help change the face of Washington – he knows that higher taxes and bigger government are not the answers."

Stephen and his wife Reiko reside in Niwot with their three children, Edison (Eddie) who is 17, Justine who is 13 and 9 year-old Jade. The family enjoys the company of their 2 dogs, Lisha and Crystal.
